

Taste of Dakar Weekend – Need to Bring

Camping Supplies:

- Tent – still a good idea to bring rain fly
- Sleeping pad – warm one
- Sleeping bag
- Flashlight and/or headlamp
- Lighter and waterproof matches
- Multi tool
- Comfortable camp chair

Personal Supplies:

- Sunglasses
- Sun block
- Lip balm
- Toothbrush
- Toothpaste – no you can't borrow ours
- Towel and washcloth
- Soap
- Hat (if desired)
- Warm clothing
- Shoes (when not riding)
- Extra pairs of socks

Riding Supplies:

- Street legal plated bike (Local Rentals Here)
- Insurance card
- Camelback or other bladder/hydration system
- Snacks for the ride – granola bars make an easy snack
- Extra fuel (Suggested: Rotopax fuel packs)
- Riding gear – not only should it be protective, but also appropriate for the elements (ie, breathable, comfortable)
- Tool kit – small and easy to pack on bike (suggested: CruzTOOLS)
- Spare fasteners

-
-
- Loctite
 - Spare tube
 - Tire patch kit
 - Tire lever (suggested: Motion Pro T6)
 - Extra oil
 - GPS unit (if desired)
 - Adventurous spirit!

Other Options:

- GoPro or VholdR camera to record footage of your ride
- Still shot camera for photos of stunning scenery
- AltRider hard parts to protect in rough terrain
- Pivot Pegz for increased comfort while riding on the pegs
- Rotopax fuel packs
- Quick Steel Epoxy
- Quick Aluminum Epoxy
- Tubliss core
- Moto Hand Warmers

What AltRider Provides:

- 3 Square meals every day
- Adult beverages
- The venue
- The route
- Good times!